the creek or the private Tamarack Lake we swam, snorkeled, dove and fished in. I remember how the eight of us piled into our stationwagon to attend the little, white country church seven miles away. The Delton Seventh Day Adventist Church was the center of our lives then, as was the eighth grade country church school near Banfield that we attended. Later I attended the Battle Creek Academy where I graduated as Salutatorian in 1970. In high school it was my privilege to belong to the National Honor Society, band, choir (as president), queen's court, class office, Student Association (as secretary), Battle Creek Student-of-the-Month, to write and direct our senior class play and to win third and then first place from Michigan in a National essay contest. My mother's (Sophia Rudick's) parents immigrated from Russia as young people. My grandfather was a Corporal in the Russian army. Martin and Natalia Rudick settled in Albion, Michigan. My father's (Murray Stuck's) father, James, was orphaned from Michael and Libbie Stuck at seven years to become a farmhand who met the cultured "Ella" Albertson, whom he married and settled with on the road now named after him.

To Rex Allen Hook, growing up on Starr School Road, south of Hastings, meant hunting, fishing, exploring the pines, playing baseball, keeping and butchering chickens and getting together with friends. Rex (and his sister, Ruth) went to the country "Starr School" (at the end of his road) then attended Hastings schools. He graduated from Hastings High School in 1969. While in school Rex was always involved in sports (football, track and wrestling). Rex was chosen all-state in football his senior year. He also excelled in woodshop, architectural drawing and building. He worked part-time during school years in a semigarage, a mechanic shop and on farms baling hay. While visiting his cousins on Stuck Road, he met me and we dated for three and one half busy years. Rex attended Kellogg Community College and worked as a carpenter. His parents, Allen and Joan Hook, and their parents, Hazen and Mildred Hook and John and Iva Schovan were all Barry County citizens.

On August 2, 1970, we were married in the Battle Creek Tabernacle and honeymooned at Williamsburg, Virginia. We moved into an apartment in Hastings and thirteen months later our son, Rex Allen II, was born (1971). We bought a home on Hickory Corners Road, I took courses at Kellogg Community College and Western Michigan University, then Michael Murray was born (1975). We built a home by the creek on Stuck Road and Caren Theresa Lorraine was born three years later (1982).

As a licensed building contractor, Rex owns Hook Construction Co. (where I work as secretary-bookkeeper). The family enjoys camping, traveling, singing, playing instruments, fishing, hunting, softball, football, volleyball, snowmobiling, cycling and swimming. We attend the Delton Seventh Day Adventist Church and appreciate the good land we were raised on.

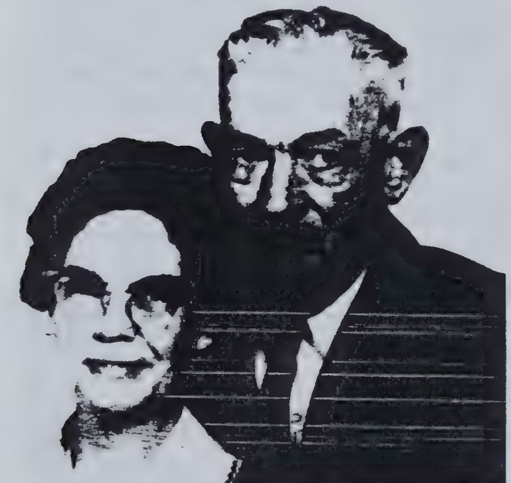
PAUL JONES FAMILY

aul and Lottie Jones, with their two chil- n, Mildred and Charles, moved from Battle ek to Hickory Corners in March, 1945.



Paul and Lottie Jones

Paul was born December 23, 1898 in Cli- ax, Michigan (d. March 5, 1976) the son of arles and Kitty Campbell Jones. Lottie was rn in Jonesville, Michigan on March 1, 1909, e daughter of Chris and Pearl Lewis Crapoff.

When they met, Paul was doing cement ork and Lottie was employed at Post Cereals. ey were married in Battle Creek April 14, 34. They worked at the Welcome Cafe on fferson Avenue (now S.W. Capital) in Battle reek, which was owned by Charles and Kitty nes. they later went into the live bait business r themselves, and Lottie also worked at phie's Grocery.

Paul was an avid outdoorsman who enjoyed shing and hunting, and was well known for his apping skills. In 1956 he caught ninety six fox the new football field and lights. Paul was employed at Clark Equip. Co. for twenty three years, retiring in 1966.

Lottie worked at Clark Equipment Company during World War II, and in later years worked in the cafeteria at Gull Lake School. She sat on the Election Board from 1948 until the fall of 1976, and was chairman for several years. She has made many beautiful afghans for family and friends, and her delicious pies are a special treat. Lottie had double bypass surgery in 1980, and now has two trophies from the "Borgess Run for Your Health." She has put forth a lot of effort to regain her health, and her family is very proud of her.

Land was sold in the spring or summer of 1947 so the American Legion could build, and they had their grand opening in the summer of 1949. Consumers Power purchased 10 acres in 1966 to install their main power lines. In 1971, Charles built a home on the northwest corner of the property.

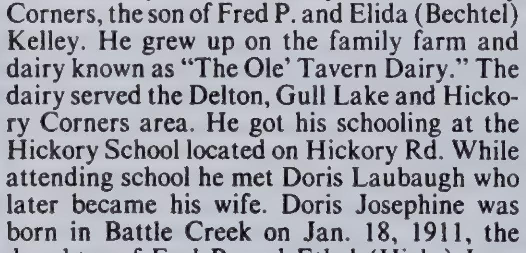
Mildred married Gearald Kinsey in 1955 while he was in the Navy. They built a home near Scotts, and live there still. Gearald works at Fisher Body in Kalamazoo, and they own and manage rental property. They have three children, Mark, Michael and Debra, and two grandsons, Shaun and Rodney.

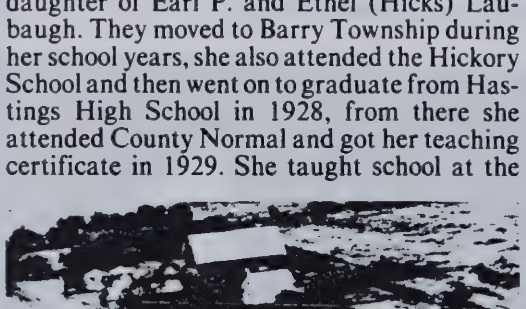
Charles served his hitch in the Marine Corps. He now lives in Battle Creek, works at Clark Equip. Co., and owns and manages rental property. He has three children, Randy, Julie and Cheryl. Charles died in 1985.

Lottie sold the property and moved to the Climax Mobile Home Park in 1981, to be near her daughter. She is keeping busy managing her rental property in Kalamazoo.

LESLIE HAROLD KELLEY

Leslie Harold Kelley was born June 17, 1910 on the family farm on Kelley Rd. in Hickory Corners, the son of Fred P. and Elida (Bechtel) Kelley. He grew up on the family farm and dairy known as "The Ole' Tavern Dairy." The dairy served the Delton, Gull Lake and Hickory Corners area. He got his schooling at the Hickory School located on Hickory Rd. While attending school he met Doris Laubaugh who later became his wife. Doris Josephine was born in Battle Creek on Jan. 18, 1911, the daughter of Earl P. and Ethel (Hicks) Laubaugh. They moved to Barry Township during her school years, she also attended the Hickory School and then went on to graduate from Hastings High School in 1928, from there she attended County Normal and got her teaching certificate in 1929. She taught school at the King School on Banfield Rd. for three years. During her last year of teaching, she married Leslie on April 30, 1932. The wedding took place in Middlebury, Indiana at the Methodist Church. Following the wedding they returned to the family farm, where they both worked on the farm and dairy. Their first son Robert was born in 1933. In 1934 they bought their first home on Hickory Rd. in Hickory Corners. The total cost of the home was $500.00 and they had to make payments of $50.00 a year. In 1935 their first daughter was born, Barbara. In 1937 another daughter Linda, and 1940 Nancy, and finally in 1944, Donald arrived.





Leslie was then employed at the Distillery in Battle Creek and did carpentry work with Elias Trick and Sanford Willison. In 1943 Leslie hired in at the Kellogg Co. in Battle Creek, he stayed until his retirement in 1972. He also worked as a electrician and plumber as a second job. He also was an active member of Hickory Corners Baseball Team for many years, a volunteer fireman and Township Trustee for several years. He was a life member of Hickory Lodge, Consistory and Shire of Battle Creek and a member of the Easter Star.

Doris's life was devoted to raising her famil and school and church affairs. She was a life member of the Prudence Noble Chapter of Eastern Star and a past president of the Barr County OES Association.

The Kelley kids all attended and graduated from Kellogg Consolidated School. During their years in Hickory they delivered papers, mowed lawns, did babysitting and numerous jobs for everybody.

Following the passing of Fred and Elida, Leslie bought out his brother Mearls' interest and moved his family to the family farm on Kelley Rd. This was in 1953 and he continued farming until his death in 1979.

The family was pretty well grown by this time and the first to leave was Barbara. She was married on Oct. 3, 1953 to Richard D Hicks of Battle Creek. They still reside in Battle Creek and have three grown children, two girls and one boy.

Robert was employed at the Sutherland Paper Co. In 1954 he was drafted and spent his time in the service in Germany. He married Joyce L. Knauss on June 29, 1954. Returning from the service he moved his family to Kalamazoo where he still resides. They have one daughter and three sons.

Nancy's first marriage ended in divorce From this marriage she had a daughter and a son. She married Richard Wilson on Oct. 1961. They reside in Ross Township and have another daughter and a son.

Linda married Russel E. Ford on Oct. 19 1957. They bought the tenant house adjoining the farm, where they still reside. From this marriage they have four daughters.

Donald married Donna Horn on April 1965, he moved his family to St. Louis, Missouri. He has three sons.

After Leslie passed on in August of 1979 Doris remained on the farm. The farming wa turned over to Russel and Linda. In May o 1983 Doris passed away and the following yea part of the farm was sold. The remaining 20 acres are still owned by the family and ar man, immigrants from Germany, was orphaned at eight years of age. Harry and Elizabeth Lewis Jones of Orangeville Township adopted him. Elizabeth's brother, "Burb" Lewis took Donald's brother, Jack (John) Hoffman, but didn't adopt him. Harry and Elizabeth Jones, now with three children, Donald, Alice Jones Jensen, and Doris Jones Pettengill, moved to West Hickory Road in Barry Township where they built a house and barn across from what is now the Gilmore Car Museum.

Donald went to the Pendill School and worked on the farm until his marriage to Blanche Millie Lawrence, daughter of Frank and Lulu Hathaway Lawrence, pioneer family descended from Moses Lawrence of Hickory Corners. Blanche was born January 28, 1893, and she married Donald November 29, 1917. Their wedding supper dessert was turkey-shaped ice cream.

Their daughter, Dorothy Jones Hurlbut, was born on the Frank Lawrence fruit farm. Four years later, Lawrence was born at Milo at the corner of Milo and Parker Roads. Donald farmed there, and to get additional money, unloaded cars of coal at the Milo Depot and Elevator (which was moved there from Richland and operated by John Brandstetter). One morning after doing chores, Donald unloaded a coalcar with a bushel basket then went to the Clayton Pettengill farm to help fill silo in the afternoon. Donald arrived just after dinner and apologized for being a little late for work.

When the family lived and worked at the Fred and Frank Lawrence apple orchards, Donald trucked apples and honey from sixty swarms of bees to stores in Battle Creek. He also drove bus for the W.K. Kellogg School.

The family bought the 143 acre Hathaway farm on M-43 at the end of Milo Road where he and Lawrence raised Brown Swiss cows, pigs, Belgian horses, White Rock chickens (breeding stock for Little Brothers in Kalamazoo), corn wheat, oats, spelts, potatoes, alfalfa, and apples.

Donald and Blanche were active in the Wesleyan Methodist Church at Hickory Corners. He served on the church board, and she taught Sunday School classes. She was treasurer of the Women's Missionary Society for over twenty-five years.

Blanche went to church with her family on Sunday, washed on Monday, ironed and baked bread on Tuesday, went to missionary meetings Wednesday, canned meat, fruit, and vegetables, worked in the garden, cleaned on Friday, and Saturday got ready for Sunday. Her cook stove cooked the food, heated the kitchen and the water in the reservoir, warmed the cat beneath it, and wet gloves above it.

In 1965, Donald and Blanche bought a house in Hickory Corners from Edna Willison. There they continued their church activities by taking children to Sunday School and inviting town's people to trust the Lord. Donald grew vegetables in his garden which he shared with family and neighbors. He was Grand Marshall at Prairieville Farm Days and honorary member of the Michigan Farmers' Hall of Fame.

Donald went to be with the Lord in 1984. Blanche died 1985.

GEORGE JONES

A native of England he came to Hickory Corners, Michigan, and with his wife settled on section 28 in 1836 in Barry Township. They purchased 80 acres, one half mile east of Hickory Corners and a half mile north on Brooklodge Road, on the west side. The Jones had three children, George Jr., Adam and one daughter Adah. George Jones built his cabin out of native logs, near the center of his farm, the highest point in section 28. In the year of 1900 Frank Lawrence bought 38 acres of the original Jones farm including the site where the log cabin stood. The old open well still shows. George Jones enjoyed hunting, especially the passenger pigeons that were here in such abundance, the flocks made a cloud between you and the sun as they passed over. These pigeons nested in colonies in pines of Allegan County Forest, building nests so close together one nest would touch the next.

Someone got the idea of gathering the young squabs and shipping them to Chicago for the wealthy folks to dine on. This drove the adult birds from their nesting area and they soon disappeared forever, the last of them in the early 1900's. The story was told that one day George and his son went hunting passenger pigeons with his muzzle-loader shotgun, he would try to get two with one shot, which he did, except once when a pigeon flew up and landed on his gun barrel, George Jr. saw this happen. George Jr. enjoyed fishing and hunting, which he did a good share of his life. One thing he could do especially well was locate a bee tree for the honey. He would take a pan with honey in it to a clover field where bees were working, near to a woods, when the bees would come to eat he would sprinkle flour on them and watch which way they would leave. The flour was to see if the same bees returned. When they did, he would follow, or make a bee-line in the direction they went, he would also time them to estimate the distance, if he went into the woods too far, and passed the tree, he would notice the bees were coming from the opposite direction.

Adam Jones had a wood working shop in Hickory Corners on Mechanic's Alley about where Clarence Pixley's house stands today. It was a two story building 36 by 36 feet, a frame barn type with a roof sloping four ways and a large windmill fan wheel mounted in the center. This oversized wheel gave them power to run their wood lathe and other machinery, such as grinding corn meal, and whole wheat flour. He mended buggy wheels, or made you a new one, the same with wagon wheels, he made fills for buggies and cutters, wagon tongues, ox yokes, whippletrees, eveners, neckyokes for tongues, chairs, stools, night tables, washstands, wooden grain rakes, grain cradles which we used to cut grain before binders and combines, wooden handles of all kinds, for hammer, axe, mall, wooden knobs, walking canes of ash and walnut. Jones made a black walnut cane for Mary Piper Lawrence which she used and cherished very much. The old woodshop was made into a garage by Ross Cadwallader and two local men; Lester Bains and Briton Barber who worked for him. In 1919, these two took a sleigh, mounted a model T Ford motor, rear axle and wheels by the back runners, that could be moved up and down, according to the depth of snow. Then they removed the tongue, and mounted a steering wheel. With a set of tire chains on, it worked very well in the snow. It worked even better on the ice at Gull Lake, this was Hickory Corners first snow mobile.

THE LAWRENCE JONES FAMILY

Lawrence Charles Jones, son of Donald and Blanche Jones, was born January 19, 1923, at the corner of Milo and Parker Roads. He was a member of the first class to start in the first grade and go all through high school at the W.K. Kellogg School. His family moved to M-43 at the end of Milo Road where he and his sister, Dorothy Hurlbut grew up.

Lawrence and Leat Rice

Lawrence's grandfather, Harry Jones, gave him his start in farming, a ewe sheep. In school, Lawrence enjoyed agriculture classes. He was a member of the Future Farmers of America and earned the rank of State Farmer. He specialized in Brown Swiss cattle. As a teenager, he started farming with his father. He raised and broke his own team of horses. He bought his first John Deere tractor the year he graduated from high school, when he began working his grandfather's farm and neighboring farms.

On June 20, 1945, Lawrence married Leatrice Kate Dunning, daughter of Leon and Beatrice Dunning whose farm on Herbert Road joined the back of the Jones farm. Although she was born there on December 29, 1922, she lived with her parents at 313 East Orchard Street in Delton until her high school days when the family moved to the William Dunning Farm on Herbert Road. She was a 4-H Club member and leader and 4-H Service Club member.

Leatrice graduated from Delton High School and Western Michigan University then attended Wheaton College for year before

March 4 1992

Dear Lurah:

A quick line to let you know what is happening in regard to the Jones picture.

I carefully pulled out the little nails in the picture frame to get the picture out and found that the picture was firmly attached to the glass and was unable to get it free. Maybe you had a look at this before. Anyway, I took it to the Biltmore Studios and was told they could still get a photograph of it. I reluctantly left it with them with the promise they would call me to pick it up as soon as they had some shots of it. This they did.

Later the photographer called me and was very interested in the photo processing of this old picture. He asked me if Iknew anything about the origin or processing of it, and said he wanted to study it and find out, if possible, what kind of photography it was and when. The tinting was done on the back of the glass. The picture was stuck to the glass and tinting on the back of the picture.

It will take 6 to 8 weeks for completing, so we will have to wait a while before it is available to us. I am having three copies made, and I hope they come out okay.

Unless you wish I sent to handle this with Shirley Pearce,I will ~~send~~ her a note about the delay, and send her a copy when finished. I do not want to cut in on your relations with her, but will handle if you wish me to.

Your little pet looks like a cutie. I have a cat and I know what you mean about the attachment one develops with a pet.

I had a short letter from Grace recently....which I have not answered yet.

Keep well and happy!

REV. (1-81)

Do NOT use this form to request photocopies of records relating to service in World War I or II, or subsequent service.

Write to: National Personnel Records Center, GSA, (Military Records), 9700 Page Boulevard, St. Louis, MO 63132.

TYPES OF RECORDS THAT CAN BE ORDERED WITH THIS FORM

PENSION APPLICATION FILES based on United States (not State) service before World War I. Pension or bounty-land warrant application files usually include an official statement of the veteran's military or naval service, as well as information of a personal nature. Pensions based on military service for the Confederate States of America were authorized by some Southern States but not by the Federal Government until 1959. Inquiries about State pensions should be addressed to the State archives or equivalent agency at the capital of the veteran's State of residence after the war.

BOUNTY-LAND WARRANT APPLICATION FILES based on United States (not State) service before 1856. In addition to service data, these files usually give the veteran's age and place of residence at the time the application was made.

MILITARY SERVICE RECORDS based on service in the United States Army (officers who served before June 30, 1917; enlisted men who served before October 31, 1912); Navy (officers and enlisted men who served before 1896); and Confederate armed forces 1861-65). We cannot provide photocopies of files for veterans whose service terminated less than 75 years ago; however, we are usually able to provide certain information from the files. Military service records rarely contain family information. The record of an individual's service in any one organization is entirely separate from the record of the service in another organization. We are ordinarily unable to accurately establish the identity of individuals of the same name who served in different organizations. If you know that an individual served in more than one organization and you desire copies of the military service record, submit a separate form for the service record in each organization.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS FORM

Submit a separate set of forms for each veteran. Do NOT remove any of the sheets of this 3-part set. Do NOT mail payment with your order. You will be billed $3.00 for each file reproduced.

Mail completed form to:

Military Service Records (NNCC)

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

When you send more than one form at a time, each form may be handled separately and you may not receive all of your replies at the same time.

When, because of the size of a file, we are unable to provide copies of all documents, we send copies of the documents we feel will be most useful to you. You may order copies of all documents in a file by making a specific request and giving us authorization to bill you 20¢ per page ($3.00 minimum).

When we indicate that we have numerous files for veterans of the same name given, we suggest that you visit the National Archives and examine the various files, or hire a professional researcher to examine the file for you.

As a matter of policy, the National Archives does not perform research for individuals; therefore, we are unable to make a file-by-file check to see if the information in the numerous files matches the information you have provided.

We do not maintain a list of persons who do research for a fee; however, many researchers advertise their services in genealogical periodicals, usually available in libraries.

More information about the availability of armed service records may be found in our free genealogical information leaflets and forms. These may be requested by writing to the address mentioned under "Instructions for Completing this Form."

Military Record of John H. Jones War of 1812

Complete file was received was received from Military Service Records (NNCC) Washington D.C. 20408 Aug. 1981 There are 29 pages and the following is a summary of them.

John H. Jones received bounty land of 160 Acres Warrant No. 97378 March 18, 1861. His application for Bounty Land was April 6, 1855

He applied for a pension June 1872 (Pension Act Feb. 14, 1871) as a private soldier in the Company Commanded by Captain Barras (Barres) in the Battalion commanded by Major Parmendon Adams Orderly Sergant of Co. was Daniel Carpenter.

Their Company included about 150 Indians. The British force also had Indians employed

He declared he was in the attack against the British two miles called Battle of Fort Erie from Fort George in Canada July or Aug. They were defeated the first attack. About five days after the first attack they were reinforced by some regular troops from Ft. George and the battery was taken.

John was taken sick the latter part of Aug. 1813 and obtained a furlough to return home. He was sick for three months and unable to join his Company. When he was able to to join his Company it had disbanded.

He further states that he was drafted for a tour of three months, the first of June 1813, as a substitute for a man whose name he couldn't recall. He was drafted Byron Genesee Co. N.Y. in the N.Y. Militia.

He was married at Elba, Genesee Co. N.Y. Feb. 1815 to Wealthy Studley, Not married when he applied for pension 11 June 1872 over-according to the records John was refused a pension of $8.00 a month because no records could be found of Captain Barras Company. Since he was never discharged they claimed abandoment,

He claimed that he was honorably discharged during his illness at home but was unconscious and didn't receive any paper of discharge.

In the matter of the claim for pension (No. 32437)
for John H. Jones of Capt. Bills Co. Regiment, of N. Y. Militia Volunteers. On this First day of July 1878 personally came before me, a Notary Public in and for said County and State, John H. Jones who being duly sworn, states as follows: I am aged 88 years and am a citizen of the County of Barry and State of Michigan My Post Office address is Delton Mich.

I am claimant in above named case.

I am unable to recall the name of the individual for whom I went as a substitute

The county seat is distant twenty miles and my health and strength are not sufficient to allow me to travel that distance by private conveyance, as there is no other way to reach there, hence my original application was made near home. I am too feeble and infirm to go to the County seat

I am obliged to make my mark now, owing to my feebleness, and extreme nervousness, which renders it impossible for me to write my name

~~That I have no interest direct or indirect in the prosecution of said claim.~~

[illegible] of John [illegible] N.Y. 1/30

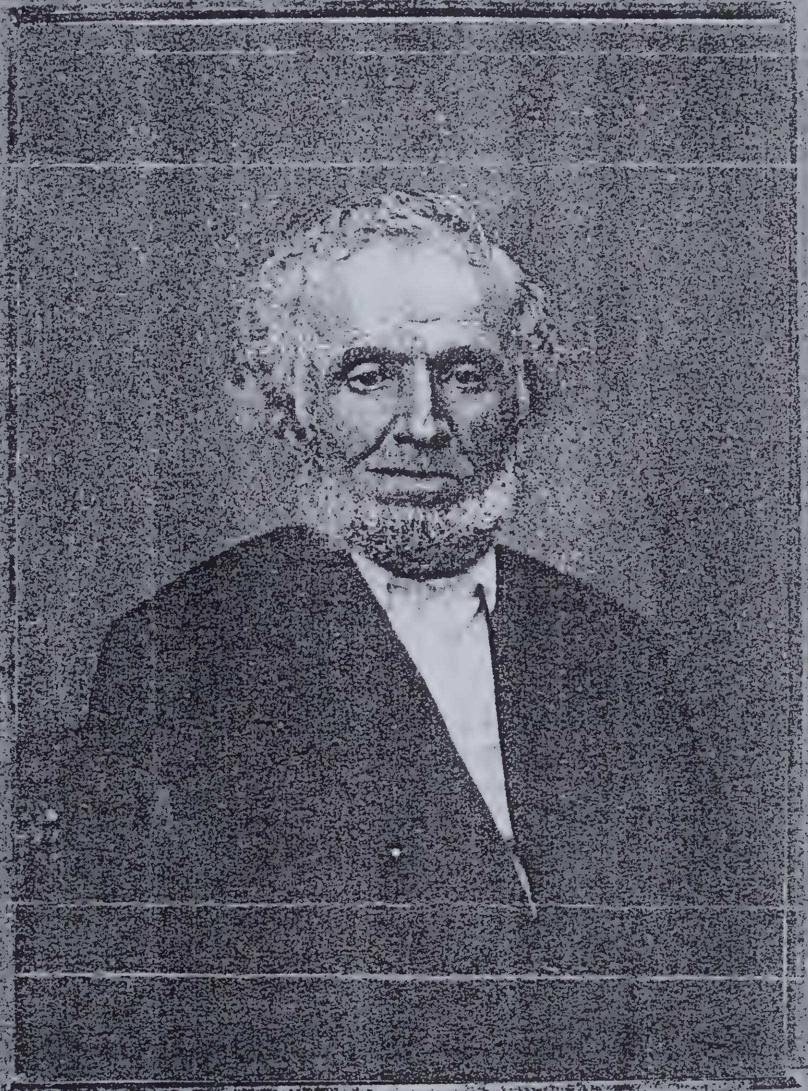
John H. Jones b. Montgomery, N.Y. 1790



There was an interesting meeting last week at Mr. Z. Umstuds, west of the city between Mr. Smith Jones, father of Mrs. Umstud, age 85 years and his elder brother age 87 years, who is a resident of Hickory Corners, Barry county, who rode and drove his buggy from there in a single day to this city. Both draw pensions as soldiers of the war of 1812, one having served in the regular army, and the other with the volunteers, both having participated in the struggles about Buffalo and Lundy Lane.

John H. Jones was born in Montgomer county, N. Y., Jan. 10, 1790. He manifested his patriotism by enlisting in the War of 1 In 1815 he was married to Wealthy Sm[illegible] whom he had seven children, three of whom remain to mourn his loss. Moving to Richland, O., in 182[illegible], he united with the M. E. Church, in which church he has since lived. In 1860 he moved to Barry, Mich., where, on Dec. 18, 1880, he passed from labor to reward. Bro. Jones, for over half a century, lived a consistent Christian life. He loved the church of his choice, and ever labored for her success. The last days of his illness were seasons of triumph. Although friends could scarcely be recognized, Jesus was ever present, in whom calmly and peacefully fell asleep. "Serv- [illegible] well done."

Obituary.

Mrs. Maria Jones was born January 1, 1830, in Livonia, Livingston Co., State of New York, and departed this life June 9, 1915, at the ripe age of 85 years. Her maiden name was Maria Sidnam. She joined the M. E. church at the early age of 14 years, and was ever after a faithful member of the same. She was married to Datus E. Jones July 20, 1849 in Sherwood, Branch county, Mich., and survived her husband thirty-five years. There were born to this union ten children, six of whom are still living. The deceased was ever a faithful, devoted mother, and if the rearing of a large family of children is deserving of praise and commendation, she will have it said to her by the Master, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

charge in the Circuit Court yesterday

Thomas Harris was arraigned before Esquire Briggs to-day, charged disorderly conduct and loud and profane conversation on the streets. The Justice imposed a fine of $5 and costs upon him.

The liabilities of the business firm of Dudgeon & Cobb of Kalamazoo, who recently suspended are reported at $48,000 and the assetts are stated at $25,000. The business is to be continued by Mr. John Dudgeon as agent.

There was a full attendance at the W C. T. U. rooms, yesterday afternoon, but Mrs. D'Arcambal was not present as expected. The lady was no doubt unavoidably detained and will be here at some future meeting of the society.

The laborers on the M. & O. road are engaged in building the bridges at Wheatfield swale, Ceresco, and at the millpond in Marshall. The bridges between Augusta and Monteith are all completed and are ready for the iron.

Among the patents issued to Michigan inventors at Washington, on the 6th, was one to Andrew J. Hoag, of this city, assignor to Nichols, Shepard & Co., for a "traction wheel," and one to John C. Lequay, also of this city, for a "threshing machine." TOBEY-CROSBY

Mrs. Malenda Tobey died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Peter Crosby, at 5 p. m., on Tuesday, March 6th. The deceased was sixty seven years of age. The funeral will be held at the residence of Peter Crosby on Goguac street, Friday morning at ten o'clock.

Mr. James T. Schultz, who has been appointed General Agent of the Michigan Central Railroad, with headquarters at Grand Rapids, will leave tomorrow to assume his duties followed by the good wishes of numerous friends. His family will remain in the city for the present.

N. H. Briggs, Esq., returned from Grand Rapids last night, where he has been in attendance upon the U. S. Court. Court had adjourned for one month before he arrived there, and he likens his experience to that of the boy who visited the county fair, no premiums were awarded but a good drive was had.

was filled by Mr. Yates [illegible], of this city. The bridesmaid was elegantly attired in a becoming suit of white which was ornamented with natural flowers, arranged with excellent taste

The invited guests numbered upwards of fifty, being the more intimate friends of the contracting parties, all of whom heartily concurred in the best of wishes for the future of the newly married people Among the guests present were Mr. R. Gosline and wife, Dr J H Fisher and wife, and Clark Hentes and wife of Augusta

The presents were abundant and elegant and included a generous amount of silver ware, besides a costly gold watch and chain, a gift to the bride from her father

A bounteous feast was prepared for the guests, to which ample justice was done, which was testimony in itself of the culinary skill of the matron who prepared it

At 11 o'clock Mr. Cowles and wife boarded the east bound train for Rochester, Lyons, and other cities of New York State, to be absent about three weeks among friends.

Mrs. Cowles is well known to most of the young people in this locality, to whom she has endeared herself by her lady like and winning manner, while Mr. Cowles will be recollected as the gentlemanly and efficient book keeper, for the clothing house of J. M. & L. Jacobs in this city. The JOURNAL joins heartily with the other numerous friends in wishing them a long and prosperous life.

Calhoun Medical Association

The first quarterly meeting of the Calhoun County Medical Association was held in the council rooms of this city yesterday afternoon, the President, Dr Tomlinson in the chair.

There was a fair representation of the profession of the county considering the condition of the weather, and the fact that this is one of the busiest seasons for the physician. Besides the most active doctors there were members present from Albion, Marshall, Ceresco, Burlington, Bedford, and Climax. Dr. White of Bedford was admitted to membership.

Interesting reports on epidemics and endemics, and valuable papers with discussion of the same occupied the time until 6 p. m. when the society adjourned to tea at the Williams House.

Reassembling after tea, the committee on Necrology was called upon to report. Owing to the fact that the time was very limited for the work done and that the meeting was brought to an abrupt close by the arrival of trains at the December meeting, no action was taken respecting the death of the oldest and most esteemed member of the association, and therefore this, the first subsequent opportunity, was embraced for that purpose.

It was accordingly requested of the president that he appoint a special committee who should assemble to draft a set of resolutions, expressing the sense of the society, which committee shall be authorized to publish said resolutions as soon as possible.

The President appointed Dr. Montgomery of Marshall, Dr. Green formerly of Burlington, now of Marshall, and Dr. Crosby of Albion, as such committee.

After some farther discussions the society adjourned to meet in Marshall on Mrs. Mary J. Crosby's Death.—In the death of Mrs. Mary J. Crosby, which occurred Thursday afternoon, March 27, at 8:30 o'clock at the family residence, 400 Lake avenue, this community has suffered the loss of another pioneer and a highly respected resident. Mrs. Crosby's demise was not unlooked for, as she has been in failing health for several years, and for the past few months has been confined to the bed with complications which must of necessity be fatal. Mrs. Crosby, who was the widow of Peter Crosby, who passed away in January, 1901, was born near Finlay, Ohio, March 7, 1836, and at the age of ten months came with her parents to Eckford township, Calhoun county, where she remained until five years old, when the family moved to Eaton county, near Charlotte, where she grew to womanhood. In 1851 the decedent became the wife of Mr. Crosby and for twelve years the couple lived in Battle Creek township, later taking up a residence in this city. Mrs. Crosby was essentially a home woman and of a quiet and retiring nature. Those who knew her best recognized the many sterling traits of character which she possessed, and her neighborly kindness endeared her to many. The only surviving members of the immediate family are two children, Julius E. Crosby, a successful farmer of Emmett township, and Mrs. Joel C. Hopkins of this city, who has been untiring in her devotion to her invalid mother. The late William Crosby, a brilliant lawyer, was a son. Funeral services will be held at the residence, 400 Lake avenue, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. William S. Potter officiating. The interment will take place in the Reese cemetery.

Aug Peter Crosby. 1894

Among the self-made men of Battle Creek, may be prominently mentioned the name of Mr. Peter Crosby. This gentleman was born in New York State, in the County of Steuben, in the year 1823, where he was reared on his father's farm and where he obtained a good common school education and had inculcated principles of uprightness and integrity which have remained and been his guiding stars through life. When eighteen years of age, way back in 1841, the year after the election of the first Harrison, he came to Battle Creek with his brother, Granville Crosby. He bought a farm in the township which he was compelled to go in debt for, and he went to work with commendable energy and untiring industry to pay his indebtedness. He worked early and late, not only on his own land, but also hired out to his neighbors, and by his unceasing toil, good business judgment and by a system of strict economy, he paid for the land, without receiving a dollars worth of assistance or aid from anyone, and here he built for himself, the comfortable home, and in 1851, was married to Mary Jane Webster. They have two sons, Julius, and W. A. Crosby, and one daughter, Mrs. Joel Hopkins.

Mr. Crosby and his estimable wife were good neighbors, and their relations were friendly and pleasant with all with whom they were associated. The years went by and they continued to gain the good will and respect of all. Mr. Crosby has been a leading Republican for years in his neighborhood, he was elected Justice of the Peace of his township, but declined to qualify for the office. Mr. Crosby has been liberal in his donations to public charities and has always been kind and lenient to people to whom he has loaned money. Twenty-seven years ago, Mr. Crosby and family moved into this city and he and his wife now reside in a pleasant home owned by him on Lake ave. where we trust they will continue to reside for years to come and enjoy the results of his

Dear Lurah:

It was so good to hear from you. Have not fully recovered from my 55th Class Reunion. I foolishly told about my son Richard's wedding and new daughter, not having been home in two years and my sister in-law is someone I have known all my life, and she did not attend the wedding and furthermore felt I was bragging, not thrilled and happy. Will not go into all of the ramifications, but I was not in Class picture, because of going for her camera and film for mine!

Mrs Beebe, who lives in Brighton, MI where my son does, finally replied to my 2nd letter which I had enclosed a stamped self addressed envelope. Realized too late that in Brighton, I had been preoccupied and not done soon. She said she was winding up her own lines and could not take it on, but my Query for Detroit Gen Soc would appear in next issue. The Autumn issue just arrived, so do not know when Winter will appear. Someone from CA answered my GEN HELPER queries with an index she had that mentioned Jones, Lees, Studley, not mentioning location. Her two pamphlets cost $25. I may follow thru.

Have also found MAYFLOWER that list current state officers and a Mrs Green is now HIstorian. Mrs Beebe doubted if she would have time to pursue it, as it is a Supplamentary.

Have not contacted Steed who published BROTHERS KEEPERS, which I have now transferred into. He is from MI and has a Bulletin Board. My husband just brought home a mechanism that will interact with Internet or wherever, thru RIT mainframe. We will have to study it, and I shall have to find my Steed book and reacquaint myself with the program. PAF finally sent me an update to their 2.3 which supposedly corrects some problems it had! Have to wait for Manual to arrive.

I shall ask Clare Richards in Delton, what he knows about Pettengills. Have Avery's funeral card, and can not find it and had not entered the date. Doris may have given his father's name. Hopefully it is on death record. No one from Mason MI ever replied to me. After Christmas shall return to that area. I shall stay at a Motel and not tell my son am in area until have latched onto something.

Enclosed is a picture of me after having spent the nite with a classmate who was not at reunion, in Batavia, NY. My camera can be cruel and even show the hairs in my nose! Will keep in touch and try to reorganize.

The Descendants of
of the Mayflower for Five Generations
Volume 1
Through his First Child
Desire^2 Howland, and her husband, Captain John Gorham

1. John^1 Howland and his wife, Elizabeth Tilley

John Howland of Fenstanton, Huntingdonshire, England, a passenger on the famous ship Mayflower, which sailed from Plymouth, England, in the autumn of 1620, was the indentured manservant of Mr. John Carver, a wealthy Londoner, who became the first governor of New Plimoth Colony in Massachusetts. On 11 November 1620, as the ship lay at anchor in Cape Cod Bay, John Howland was the thirteenth man to sign the MAYFLOWER COMPACT, the agreement which laid the foundation for the new town that the able-bodied men on board the Mayflower planned to create when the group landed in what was to become Plymouth, Massachusetts.[1]

The son of Henry and Margaret Howland, John Howland was born about 1592 and grew up in Fenstanton, a town nine miles northwest of Cambridge on the old Roman Road. No baptismal record has been found for John Howland but he was said to have been "above eighty years" when he died in Rocky Nook, Kingston, near Plymouth, 23 February 1672. His father, Henry Howland, yeoman, died in Fenstanton 17 May 1635, and his mother, Margaret, was buried there 31 July 1629. The identity of this family is proved by the probate records of John's brother, Humphrey Howland, a draper, who settled in St. Swithin's Parish in London. Humphrey Howland, in his will written in London 28 May 1646 and proved 10 July 1646 by his second wife, Anne, mentioned his brothers, Arthur, John, and Henry, his sister, Margaret, wife of Richard Phillips of Fenstanton, shoemaker, his "nephew," Simon Howland, and his "niece," Hannah Howland, Simon's sister. Additional information about John

Colchester, a meadow near the Jones River bridge in Duxborrow, a house and land in Middlebury, and land near Nemassakett Pond. Also listed among his possessions were "one great Bible and Annotations on the five books of Moses," as well as "Mr. Tindall's workes, Mr. Wilson's workes and seven more books."[23]

John's widow, Elizabeth, died in Swansea, 21/31 December 1687, at 80 years of age, in the home of her daughter, Lydia Browne. Three of her daughters Desire Gorham, Hope Chipman and Ruth Cushman had already died, leaving heirs. In her will dated 17 December 1686, Elizabeth Howland named her sons, John, Jabez, Joseph and Isaac, her son-in-law James Browne, her surviving daughters Lydia Browne, Elizabeth Dickason (sic), and Hannah Bosworth, her granddaughters Elizabeth Bursley, Dorothy Browne and Desire Cushman, and her grandsons Nathaniel Howland and James and Jabez Browne. She charged her children to "walke in ye Fear of ye Lord, and in love and peace toward each other."[24]

Children (Howland), first three probably born in Plymouth, Mass., next three possibly born in Maine, last four born in Rocky Nook, now Kingston, Mass.:[25]

+1 i. Desire^2, born probably in 1625.
ii. John, born 24, 2, 1627 [24 April 1627].
iii. Hope, born 30 August 1629.
iv. Elizabeth, born about 1631.
v. Lydia, born about 1633.
vi. Hannah, born about 1637.
vii. Joseph, born about 1640.
viii. Jabez, born about 1644.
ix. Ruth, born about 1646.
x. Isaac, born 15 November 1649.

John Howland's Signature

John Howland's signature has been reproduced in several books published since 1849. All of the signatures are similar in appearance and appear to have been copied from an earlier, unidentified source. The original document has never been located.

John Howland

The signature reproduced here was found in Thomas Weston's History of Middleboro, page 589, which was published in New York in 1906 and reprinted in Taunton, Mass., in 1975. A similar signature was used by Justin Winsor in his History of Duxbury, page 63, published in Boston in 1849. Winsor used it again in his Narratives and Critical History of America (3:268), published in 1884. It is to be hoped that the original document may still be hidden away in an archive or historical museum, or in a private collection, and will eventually be recognized and identified.

SECOND GENERATION

2. Desire^2 Howland and Captain John Gorham

1. Desire^2 Howland (John^1) was born in Plymouth, Mass., about 1625 or 1626,[1] the daughter of John and Elizabeth (Tilley) Howland. Desire and her brother, John, were listed with their parents in the Division of Cattle in Plymouth, 22 May 1627 (old style), 1 June 1627 (new style). John's birth date, 24, 2, 1627 (old style) [24 April 1627], was recorded by Judge Sewall who met John^2 Howland on the road and asked him when he was born. Therefore, Desire must have been the eldest child, born one year or eighteen months earlier than John. Desire died in Barnstable, Mass., 13 October 1683.[2]

Desire Howland married in Plymouth, about 1643 John Gorham,[3] who was baptized in Benefield, Northamptonshire, England, 28 January 1620/1,[4] the son of Ralph Gorham. Capt. John Gorham was buried in Swansea, Mass, 5 February 1675/6.[5]

The Northamptonshire branch of the Gorhams are supposed to have descended from Sir Hugh de Gorham and his wife, Margaret, daughter of Sir William l'Angevin. Sir Hugh de Gorham, in 1281, possessed the manor of Churchfield in the parish of Oundle, and land in Benefield which had belonged to his wife's father. More than three hundred years later, the baptism of "John Gorram, son of Ralph Gorram" was entered in the Benefield register.[6]

A John Gorham, perhaps this man, was a passenger on board the Philip, bound for North America, 20 June 1635, with Richard Morgan, master.[7] A Ralph Gorham was granted land in Plymouth 2 October 1637 for a house and garden. On 5 March 1637/8, he complained against Frances Sprague. A year later, "Ralph Gorham the older" was presented for breaking the peace. On 1 September 1640 he complained against Ralph Smith and on 2 March 1640/1 Smith complained against Ralph Gorham. On 5 April 1640 he sued Tristram Clark and John Crab for debt.[8] He then disappeared from Plymouth records.

On 8 March 1648 Desire's father, John Howland, sold to his "son-in-law, John Gorum," half of the lands in Marshfield that he had bought from Governor William Bradford.[9] In 1672, Desire's mother, Elizabeth Howland, "wife of Mr. John Howland, deceased, came into court at Plymouth and acknowledged that she freely gave and surrendered rights in the lands of her late husband lying in Namasket in the township of Middleboro to Mr. John Gorum of Barnstable,"[10] The exact date of their marriage is not known but Desire was called "Desire Gorum" in her father's will dated 29 May 1672. Additional proof that Desire Howland married John Gorham was found in a land transaction dated 16 February 1673, in which "John Gorum Sen^r of Barnstable" sold to George Dawson, "now resident at Barnstable," land in Middleboro formerly belonging to John Howland and Elizabeth, his wife, and given to the said John Gorum before John Howland's death. The transaction was witnessed by Joseph Laythorpe and John Thompson, and acknowledged 24 February 1673 before Thomas Hinckley, Assistant. Desire, wife of John Gorum, gave her consent 30 April 1674.[11]

John and Desire Gorham lived in Plymouth after the birth of their first child, Desire, 2 April 1644, and then moved to Marshfield. Their great-grandson, Col. John Gorham, in his "Wast Book," recorded that "John Gorum, alias Gorham - which Son after Having Marryed With an Howland and Had Sevrall Children Went home to England and Returned Soone again to his family. . . . Moved From Marshfield to Barnstable and Settled there in ord^r to begin a township Called Barnstable. Built Mills - tan fatts &c."[12]

John Gorham's name was on a list of men able to bear arms in Plymouth in 1643. He was chosen constable in Marshfield in 1648. He was made a freeman 4 June 1650 and in 1651 he became a member of the Grand Inquest of Plymouth Colony. He and his family moved to Yarmouth, Mass., in 1652, and then went on to Barnstable where he owned a grist mill and a tannery. He was a surveyor of highways in 1654. As a captain in the militia in King Philip's War, he took part in the Narragansett fight in December 1675, where he was wounded "by having his powder horn Shot and Split against his side," He died of the resulting fever and was buried in Swansea 5 February 1676/7.[13] His widow, Desire, survived him for more than five years, dying after her father, John Howland, but before her mother, Elizabeth Tilley. Desire was mentioned in her father's will in 1672, but not by her mother in 1686.[14]

Desire's husband, Capt. John Gorham, died intestate. On 7 March 1675, Mistress Desire Gorum (sic) and her sons, James Gorum and John Gorum, were named as administrators of the estate. The court appointed "Mr. Hinckley, Mr. Chipman and Mr. Huckins" to take care of the estate of the youngest children until they came of age. The inventory, amounting to £710-4-3, was taken 29 February 1675 and sworn to 7 March 1675. It included the dwelling house, barn, upland, meadow, tan vats, a bark mill, and two houses and tools "belonging to the taning." In the division of Capt. John Gorham's estate, dated Plymouth 7 March 1676/7, widow Desire Gorham received her dower thirds. Son James received "the dwelling house he now lives in," with the barn and half of the upland. Son John Gorham received the tan vats, bark mill, tools, stock and the other half of the upland. Son Joseph was given forty acres of land next to Joseph Hallet's land, and some meadow. The rest of the estate was divided into five equal parts among the rest of the children, who were named as Jabez, Mercy, Lydia, Hannah and Shubael Gorum. Shubael was allotted £50 for the costs of his education, in addition to receiving his share of the estate. Three married daughters, Desire, Temperance and Elizabeth, had already received £40 each. If there should be an overplus, the married daughters were to share equally with the other children, except that James, the eldest son, was to have a double share.[15]

The inventory of Desire's estate was dated 3 August 1683, more than two months before her death, 13 October 1683. On 5 March 1683/4, the Assistants of Plymouth Colony, Gov. Hinckley, Major Bradford, Deputy Gov. Mr. Freeman, Mr. Lothrop and Mr. Thacher, "with the mutual consent of the children then appearing," named as James, John and Joseph Gorham, and with the consent of the sons-in-law, agreed that the eldest son James would receive a double share, according to custom, and the rest of the children, namely John, Joseph, Jabez, Shubael, Desire, Temperance, Elizabeth, deceased, Mercy, Lydia and Hannah, should have an equal portion. As Elizabeth had died, they agreed that her children, not named, "should have an equal part that did belong to their mother."[16]

3. Temperance Gorham^{3} (Desire^{2} Howland, John^{1}) was born in Marshfield, Mass., 5 May 1646,[1] the daughter of Capt. John and Desire (Howland) Gorham. She died in Yarmouth, Mass., 12 March 1714/5.[2]

Temperance Gorham married first, in 1663 Edward Sturgis,[3] who was born possibly in Charlestown, Mass., 10 April 1642,[4] the son of Edward and Elizabeth (Hinckley) Sturgis. Edward died in Yarmouth 8 November 1678.[5] Edward was a brother of Hannah (Sturgis) Gray who married Temperance's brother, Jabez Gorham, and of Sarah Sturgis who married another brother, Joseph Gorham.

Temperance, called "the widow Sturgis," married second, in Yarmouth 27 January 1679/80 Thomas Baxter,[6] who was born in England about 1653.[7] Thomas died in Yarmouth 22 June 1713, in his 60th year, and was buried in the Ancient Cemetery in Yarmouth.[8]

Edward Sturgis, Jr., Temperance's first husband, died intestate. Sixteen years after his death, when his youngest son, also named Edward, came of age, the "Court of Plimouth" settled his estate, 5 April 1694, recorded 8 May 1694. It was divided among his four sons, named as Joseph Sturgis, who received "the first division" of property and, called eldest son, was given a larger share worth an extra £20; Samuel Sturgis, who was given "the fourth division"; James Sturgis, who was given "the third division"; and Edward Sturgis, who received the second division." His widow, Temperance, and his daughters were mentioned, but not named, in the division of the estate. Temperance's second husband, Thomas Baxter, was called her "now" husband by the Plymouth Court, 2 March 1697.[9]

Thomas Baxter was a bricklayer. Col. John Gorham, writing in his "Wast Book," begun at Louisbourg, August 28th 1745, called Thomas Baxter "an Old England man - Lived at Yarmouth."[10] Thomas was a soldier in Capt. Gorham's company in King Philip's War in 1675 and was wounded in the first expedition. For his services, on 18 April 1735, the heirs of Thomas Baxter of Yarmouth were made grantees of Narragansett township.[11] Thomas lived at South Sea, now West Yarmouth, where he built a fulling mill and a grist mill.[12] Researchers have confused him with Captain Thomas Baxter, a pirate, and his son, also named Thomas, who lived in New Amsterdam (New York City), and in Fairfield and Wethersfield, Conn. The pirate's son, Thomas Baxter, Jr., died in Westchester, New York, in 1714, one year after Thomas Baxter of Yarmouth died in Yarmouth, Mass., 22 June 1713. There is no known relationship between these two separate Thomas Baxter families.[13]

Temperance and her second husband, Thomas Baxter of Yarmouth, and their eldest son, John Baxter, were further identified by the will of Tooto, servant of Temperance's mother, Desire^2 (Howland) Gorham, dated 22 December 1691, and proved in Barnstable, 2 January 1691/2. In his will, Tooto gave his house and land to "John Baxter, Thomas Baxter's eldest son," who was then eleven years of age. Tooto also gave Temperance Baxter his "moveables and household stuff," and his old riding horse. Tooto left his two oxen in the hands of "Mr. Baxter," to pay for his burial "as neer his mistres [Desire Howland's] feet as may conveniently be."[14]

Thomas Baxter of Yarmouth, in his will dated "about" 2 June 1713, probated 9 July 1713, bequeathed to Temperance, his beloved wife, one-third of his income and his "great new house," during her natural life. He mentioned his sons Shoball, John and Thomas Baxter. He gave his son Thomas some land in Yarmouth on condition that, if he should sell it, then "his two children att Coneicticut: Timothy, ye son & the Daughter he had by his wife shall have secured to them Twenty five pounds apiece." The will was witnessed by John Gorham, Sr., John Gorham, Jr., and Anne Gorham, who made her mark. Thomas Baxter's inventory included negro slaves and mulatto servants valued at £84-4-7. His total estate amounted to more than £579-14-7.[15]

Temperance (Gorham) (Sturgis) Baxter died intestate. The inventory of her estate was taken 8 April 1715 by John Gorham, James Gorham and Josiah Miller. Her real estate was divided between her sons John, Thomas and Shubael Baxter, with John Baxter, as the eldest son of her second marriage, receiving a double portion. Her remaining personal estate was divided among "all the children of the sd Temperance Baxter both the sons and Daughters both what she had by her Last as also by her former Husband, onely Joseph Sturgis the Eldest son to have a Duble part or Shear thereof."[16] Although Temperance's daughters were not mentioned by name in the division of her estate, the first daughter was certainly Desire Sturgis, named for her grandmother, Desire Howland, and for her aunt, Desire Gorham. Proof was found in the will of widow Elizabeth Hore of Yarmouth, dated 20 May 1680, in which she bequeathed her largest pewter dish "to Desier Sturgis eldest Daughter to Temperance Baxter,"[17] The second daughter was Thankful Sturgis whose husband, Peter Thacher, called Thankful's mother, Temperance (Gorham) (Sturgis) Baxter, "Mother Baxter" in his will dated 6 January 1735/6.[18] The third daughter was Fear Sturgis, youngest child of Edward and Temperance Sturgis, who may have been given the unusual name of "Fear" by her mother because her father was dying or was already dead, making her mother "fear" for the future, a common reason for unusual names in that era. Fear's brothers Joseph and James, and her sisters, Thankful and Desire, each named a daughter "Fear."

Children, born in Yarmouth, Mass.:[19]
Children (Sturgis), by her first husband, Edward Sturgis:
+22 i. Joseph^{4}, born about 1664.

4. Elizabeth Gorham^{3} (Desire^{2} Howland, John^{1}) was born in Marshfield, Mass., 2 April 1648,[1] the daughter of Capt. John and Desire (Howland) Gorham. Elizabeth died before 5 March 1683/4,[2] the date her mother's estate was divided among her brothers and sisters and her children, who were to receive her share, but who were not named.

Elizabeth Gorham married, probably in Barnstable, Mass., before 5 March 1666/7 Joseph Hallett,[3] who was born in England in 1630, the son of Andrew Hallett, Sr., and his wife Mary.[4] Joseph Hallett died after 30 June 1715, the date he was mentioned in the intestate probate records of his grandson, Samuel Fuller of Middleboro, Mass., and before 20 June 1721, when Joseph Hallett's share in the division of common lands in Barnstable, which had become part of the estate of Jabez Fuller, his son-in-law, was divided among his Fuller grandchildren, at his daughter's request.[5]

The date of Elizabeth Gorham's marriage to Joseph Hallett has not been found but, on 5 March 1666/7, Joseph and his wife, Elizabeth were fined £10 by the Plymouth Court "for committing carnal copulation before marriage or contract."[6]

Joseph Hollott (sic), shoemaker, was listed as a debtor in the inventory of the estate of Capt. William Hedge of Yarmouth, Mass., taken 15 July 1670 by Thomas Howes and John Thacher.[7] Joseph's house stood next to that of Elizabeth's brother, James Gorham. Joseph was a townsman in Barnstable in 1670 and was allotted one acre in the division of the common meadow in 1697. He was not named in the division of common lands in 1706, indicating that, before that date, he had moved away, perhaps to Middleboro, with his daughter, Mary, and her husband, Jabez Fuller.[8] His land in Barnstable became the property of his brother-in-law, James Gorham.[9]

Elizabeth was alive and married when her father's estate was settled in 1676, but she had died before her mother's estate was settled 5 March 1683/4. On that date it was agreed by Governor Hinckley, Major Bradford, Deputy Governor Mr. Freeman, Mr. Lothrop and Mr. Thacher, Assistants, "with the mutual consent of the children then appearing, James, John and Joseph Gorham, and with the consent of the sons-in-law, that son James would receive a double share, and the rest of the children would have equal shares, namely John, Joseph, Jabez, Shubael, Desire, were always treated as Baxters in Yarmouth and Barnstable County records. Hannah Crowell was born in Yarmouth 1 December 1687,[8] the daughter of John and Hannah Crow or Crowell. Hannah's sister, Reliance Crowell, married Edmund Hatch^{5} (Desire Hawes^{4}, Desire Gorham^{3}, Desire^{2} Howland, John^{1}). [See #125, pages 195-96.] Her sister, Marcy Crowell, married Edward Downs^{5} (Elizabeth Gorham^{4}, Jabez^{3}, Desire^{2} Howland, John^{1}). [See #313, page 413-14.] Her brother, Ephraim Crowell, married Rose Gorham^{5} (John^{4}, James^{3}, Desire^{2} Howland, John^{1}). [See #222, pages 300-301.] In Yarmouth town records, immediately following the list of Hannah Crowell's children by Thomas Baxter, is the record of the births of the children of James and Hannah (Crowell) Lovel who were married in Yarmouth 11 September 1723.[9] Hannah's children by James Lovel were Simeon Lovel, born 13 June 1724, died in April 1729, and John Lovel, born 27 June 1726,[10] who were not descendants of Mayflower passenger John Howland. The early, incomplete records of the West Yarmouth Church have an entry, "Three children of Hannah Lovell: from ye youngest illegitimate. & downwards:—" (sic), but the names were not entered.[11] James Lovel died before 30 December 1739, the date when Hannah Lovel's intentions of marriage to Ebenezer Berry, as his third wife, were published in Yarmouth.[12] Hannah's father, John Crowell "of South Sea in ye town of Yarmouth," in his will dated 14 June 1727, probated 23 March 1731, named his daughter as "Hannah Lovel, wife of James Lovel."[13] Hannah died after 4 October 1751, the date the estate of her last husband, Ebenezer Berry, was divided among his heirs.[14]

Thomas Baxter was mentioned in his father's will, dated 2 June 1713, proved 9 July 1713, in which he was given land worth £200 on Yannes Harbor, bounded by Thomas Crowell and Jabez Lewis; but if he sold the land, "his two children at Connecticut, Timothy the son, and the daughter," were to have £25 each. These two children signed receipts for their legacies, Timothy Baxter on 30 March 1727, and Elizabeth Baxter on 28 March 1729.[15]

When his mother, Temperance (Gorham) (Sturgis) Baxter died intestate before 21 March 1714/5, Thomas inherited shares of her land with his brothers, John and Shubael Baxter, with John Baxter as the eldest son, receiving a double portion. He also shared in his mother's personal estate which was divided among all of her children, "both sons and daughters," meaning his Sturgis half-brothers and half-sisters as well as his Baxter brothers.[16]

Thomas Baxter's wife, Mary Baxter, was given a divorce from Thomas in Wethersfield, Conn., in March 1729, on grounds of desertion.[17] Thomas does not appear to have married Hannah Crowell, the mother of his four younger children, but town records show that these children were always accepted as Baxters.

On 13 April 1745 a Thomas Baxter, called "Junr.," probably this Thomas Baxter's son, witnessed the will of Thankful (Sturgis) Thacher, a half-sister of the Thomas Baxter studied here. This would indicate that the older Thomas Baxter had returned to Yarmouth and was living there in 1745.[18]

No probate records have been found for this Thomas Baxter.

31. Shubael Baxter^{4} (Temperance [Gorham^{3}] Sturgis, Desire^{2} Howland, John^{1}) was born in Yarmouth, Mass., in 1687, the son of Thomas and Temperance (Gorham) (Sturgis) Baxter. He died in Yarmouth 12 April 1741, aged 54 years, and was buried in the Ancient Cemetery in Yarmouth.

Shubael Baxter married in Yarmouth, as her second husband, about 1710 Elizabeth (Gorham^{4}) Downs, who was born about 1680 in Bristol, then in Massachusetts but now in Rhode Island. She was the daughter of Jabez Gorham^{3} (Desire^{2} Howland, John^{1}) and his wife, Hannah (Sturgis) Gray. Elizabeth married first, in Bristol, R.I., about 1700, William Downs, who died in Bristol before 5 March 1706, the date his probate records were filed. Elizabeth died in Yarmouth 11 April 1746.

190. Thomas Baxter^{5} (Thomas^{4}, Temperance [Gorham^{3}] Sturgis, Desire^{2} Howland, John^{1}) was born in Yarmouth, Mass., 19 December 1710,[1] the son of Thomas Baxter and Hannah Crowell. He is certainly the Thomas Baxter who died in Yarmouth 1 April 1781.[2]

Thomas Baxter, called "son of Thomas Baxter of Yarmouth," married in Yarmouth (intentions) 8 November 1740 Zilpha Nickerson of Chatham,[3] who was born there, the daughter of William and Hannah Nickerson of Chatham.[4] She died after 1 October 1758.[5]

Thomas Baxter was one of the children whom his father "had by Hannah Crowell," in Yarmouth, before he was divorced by his first wife, Mary Lattimore, in Wethersfield, Conn.[6] This Thomas Baxter was probably the man called "Thomas Baxter, Junr.," who witnessed the will of his father's half-sister, Thankful (Sturgis) Thacher, on 13 April 1745.[7] This would seem to indicate that his father of the same name was living in Yarmouth at that date.

It has been said that this Thomas Baxter moved to Carmel, New York, near the Oblong, in 1762, but no proof has been found. There were other unrelated Thomas Baxters in the Oblong, descendants of the pirate, Thomas Baxter of New York City and Wethersfield, Conn. The pirate has been confused with our Thomas Baxter of Yarmouth who married Temperance (Gorham) Sturgis as her second husband. The pirate Thomas Baxter's son of the same name was the same age as Thomas Baxter of Yarmouth. He founded Westchester, N.Y. and left many descendants in and near the Oblong.[8] Their descendants were not descendants of Mayflower passenger John Howland. Many Nickerson relatives of the wife of the Thomas Baxter discussed here moved to the Oblong, but Thomas and Zilpha's children married Yarmouth and Nantucket people, seeming to indicate that this family remained in the vicinity of Cape Cod.

No probate records have been found for Thomas and Zilpha Baxter.

191. Cornelius Baxter^{5} (Thomas^{4}, Temperance [Gorham^{3}] Sturgis, Desire^{2} Howland, John^{1}) was born in Yarmouth, Mass., 30 November 1712,[1] the son of Thomas Baxter and Hannah Crowell. He died in Yarmouth in November 1796.[2]

Cornelius Baxter married in Yarmouth, (intentions) 21 February 1746/7 Joanna Marchant, "both of this town."[3] Joanna was probably born in Yarmouth, the daughter of Samuel and Joanna (Gage) Marchant.[4] She died after May 1772 when her youngest child was baptized in the West Yarmouth church.[5]

Joanna was called "Johanna Baxter" in her father's will dated 28 April 1756.[6] No probate records have been found in Barnstable County for Cornelius and Joanna Baxter.

Note: Cornelius Baxter did not marry in Yarmouth, (intentions) 12 February 1737 Dorkis Gage, daughter of Ebenezer Gage, as stated by Stiles in his History of Wethersfield. Instead, Dorkis Gage married Isaac Baker, as is shown by the will of her father, Ebenezer Gage, who called his daughter "Dorcas Baker" in his will dated 28 April 1756.[7]

Children (Baxter), born in Yarmouth, Mass., all but the first child baptized in the West Yarmouth church:[8]

i. Martha^{6}, born 26 November 1747.

192. Leah Baxter^{5} (Thomas^{4}, Temperance [Gorham^{3}] Sturgis, Desire^{2} Howland, John^{1}) was born in Yarmouth, Mass., 17 December 1710,[1] the daughter of Thomas Baxter and Hannah Crowell. She died sometime after 7 August 1748.[2]

Leah Baxter had a son named Simeon Berry whose birth was recorded in Yarmouth records 12 July 1739.[3] Nine years later, on 7 August 1748, he was baptized in the West Yarmouth church as "Simeon, son of Leah Baxter, illegitimate."[4] This child may be the Simeon Baxter who was reared in the family of Leah's brother, Malachi and Thankful (O'Kelley) Baxter. Simeon's birthdate does not appear in Yarmouth records with the rest of Malachi's children, although a guardian was appointed for him along with the other minor children of Malachi and Thankful Baxter.[5]

193. Malachi Baxter^{5} (Thomas^{4}, Temperance [Gorham^{3}] Sturgis, Desire^{2} Howland, John^{1}) was born in Yarmouth, Mass., 30 April 1718,[1] the son of Thomas Baxter and Hannah Crowell. He died in Yarmouth in 1755.[2]

Malachi Baxter married in Yarmouth 16 March 1738/9 (intentions 28 January 1738/9) Thankful O'Kelley/Okeley,[3] who was born there 30 June 1722,[4] the daughter of Amos and Abigail O'Kelley. Thankful died in Yarmouth before 1755.[5]

Malachi Baxter of Yarmouth, blacksmith, died intestate. Isaac Taylor was named administrator of Malachi's estate, 4 July 1755. Division was made 19 March 1757. Seven children, not named, shared in the estate, the eldest being given a double portion. Guardians were appointed for Abigail, Simeon, Hannah, John, Jedediah, David and Malachi.[6] Son Simeon's birth was not recorded in Yarmouth records with the rest of Malachi's children, seeming to indicate that he may have been the illegitimate son of Malachi's sister, Leah, born 12 July 1739, named Simeon Berry.[7]

Dorothy is named in the will of her father-in-law, dated 15 Dec. 1730, as noted above, with provisions "so long as she remains a widow or bears her deceased husband's name." Nevertheless, it appears that Dorothy m. at Sandwich 1726/7, as his second wife, Thomas Gibbs of Sandwich, husbandman, b. there 28 Jan. 1678/9, d. before 9 May 1746 (MD 14[1912]:111; Barnstable County Probate, 8:75), son of Thomas and Alice (Warren) Gibbs, and had a son, Solomon Gibbs, b. 30 Jan. 1729/30 (R. S. Wakefield, J. A. Beebe, and others, Richard Warren of the Mayflower and His Descendants for Four Generations [MFIP, 1995], p. 147). A search for Dorothy's identity among the descendants of Dorothy, wife of John Joyce of Yarmouth, may possibly reveal her ancestry; the name Dorothy is uncommon in the vicinity of Barnstable at that time, but was used repeatedly by descendants of Dorothy Joyce.

VOLUME IV

This volume contains births, marriages, intentions and deaths from page 21 to 146. Because many original page numbers were missing or faded, the numbers within brackets below are those pencilled onto the bottom of each folio (sheet) before the pages were taken apart to mount in silk via the Emery process. Pages 1 to 20 were devoted to the alphabet--the index of names by first letter only.

I give to my eldest son John Jenkins and his heirs and assigns forever all my land and meadows in Falmouth, both divided and undivided, and also my gun and best suit of apparel.

I give my son Joseph and his heirs and assigns forever all my messuage or tenement whereon I now dwell, and my lot of land to the westward of ye great pond. The first lot joining to said pond at ye southernmost end of it and my cedar swamp by Shubel Davises at the landing place (only reserving liberty for my son William Bassett and his heirs to land and dry hay). My three-quarters of a lott of marsh lying adjoining on ye westerly side of that called a deacon's crick, my eastern pt lott of marsh at the northwest passage on Sandy Neck and my little shack forward lying, that called Stough Island, and also all my husbandry tools and instruments with all carts, plow and chains etc. and all my carpenter's tools and one pair of oxen after my said wife's decease or marriage and also my crane and iron back belonging to ye house and all my woodland in Barnstable.

I give ye remainder of my wearing apparel not yet disposed of to be equally divided between Philip and Joseph my sons.

I give to my daughter Sarah Bassett and to her heirs all my lott of marsh at Sandy Neck which takes in part of Scauton Islands and all my part of Cedar Swamp by Thomas Lewises, with liberty to land and dry hay at ye landing place with free egress and regress and an interest in the way to ye highway to cut hay to and also £20 to be paid her by my executors.

I give to my daughter Ruth to be paid her in proportion with my other daughters as money comes in £95 to be paid her by way of discount on her husband's bond dated January 20, 1729 unless said bond shall be paid before any art of her legacy becomes due.

I give my youngest daughter Patience £100 to be paid in proportion as money omes in.

I give to my daughter-in-law [i.e. stepdaughter] Experience Pain £20 to be aid in proportion with her sisters as money comes in.

My will and pleasure is that my executors or one of them keep £90 of my state in bond for ye use of my daughter Mary if she in their judgment stand in eed thereof, otherwise to be paid to her heirs after her decease.

My will and pleasure is that my executors keep £90 of my estate for ye use of y daughter Mehitable Chapman to be dealt out to her if her necessity call for it their judgment and what remains after her decease to be paid to her heirs.

I give to ye poor of ye church of ye east precinct or to ye Church for ye use of eir poor £5.

My will and pleasure is that what remains of my estate after my wive's ecease or marriage and just debts and Legacies paid shall be equally divided nong my children, grandchildren included.

Item: My will and pleasure is that my three sons, John, Philips [sic] and seph pay to my executors in consideration of ye lands heretofore given ye sum sums of money hereafter appointed in manner following that is to say my son hn Jenkins to pay £90, £20 of it in one year after my said wives decease or marige and so £20 a year successively until ye last years payment and then £10 for ye last year. And my son Philip to pay £50, £5 within one year after my wives decease or marriage and £5 a year until he pay ye whole, and my son Joseph £200 with £20 a year as his other brothers pay said money and my will and pleasure is that said sum of money be paid to my executors at the rate of eight shillings per pound, and in case that either of my said three sons or their heirs shall refuse or neglect to pay the sum of money as before determined, then my will and pleasure is my executors or any one of them shall sell so much of his or their right of equivalent land, so refusing as will pay said sum or sums for said party or parties to pay.

He appointed as executors his wife Patience, son John Jenkins, and Joseph Lothrop Esquire; witnesses were Samuel Annable, Thomas Sturges, and Moody Russell. In a codicil dated [blank] January 1730[/1], witnessed by Thomas Jenkins, James Coleman, and Rachel Huckins, he gave "all my land or saltmarsh in the town of Yarmouth not yet disposed of . . . to my son Philip Jenkins and to his heirs forever." He adjusted the bequest to his daughter Ruth, specifying that the £15 she had had at marriage be deducted from her legacy. To "younger daughter Patience" he left his best bed with all furniture thereunto belonging. In a second codicil dated 15 December 1732, two years to the day after the date of his will, he noted that he had learned that his son John had given surety for son-in-law James Chapman in connection with a court suit, "before James Chapman left this country," and had been forced to pay £48, and directed that this sum be paid out of the legacy to daughter Mehitable Chapman.
